

Stage 1 is a long course with minimum 31 rounds, max. points: 155.

Targets are: 12 IPSC targets (4 partials), 1 popper, 6 plates, 5 penalty targets.

Gun condition: loaded and holstered.

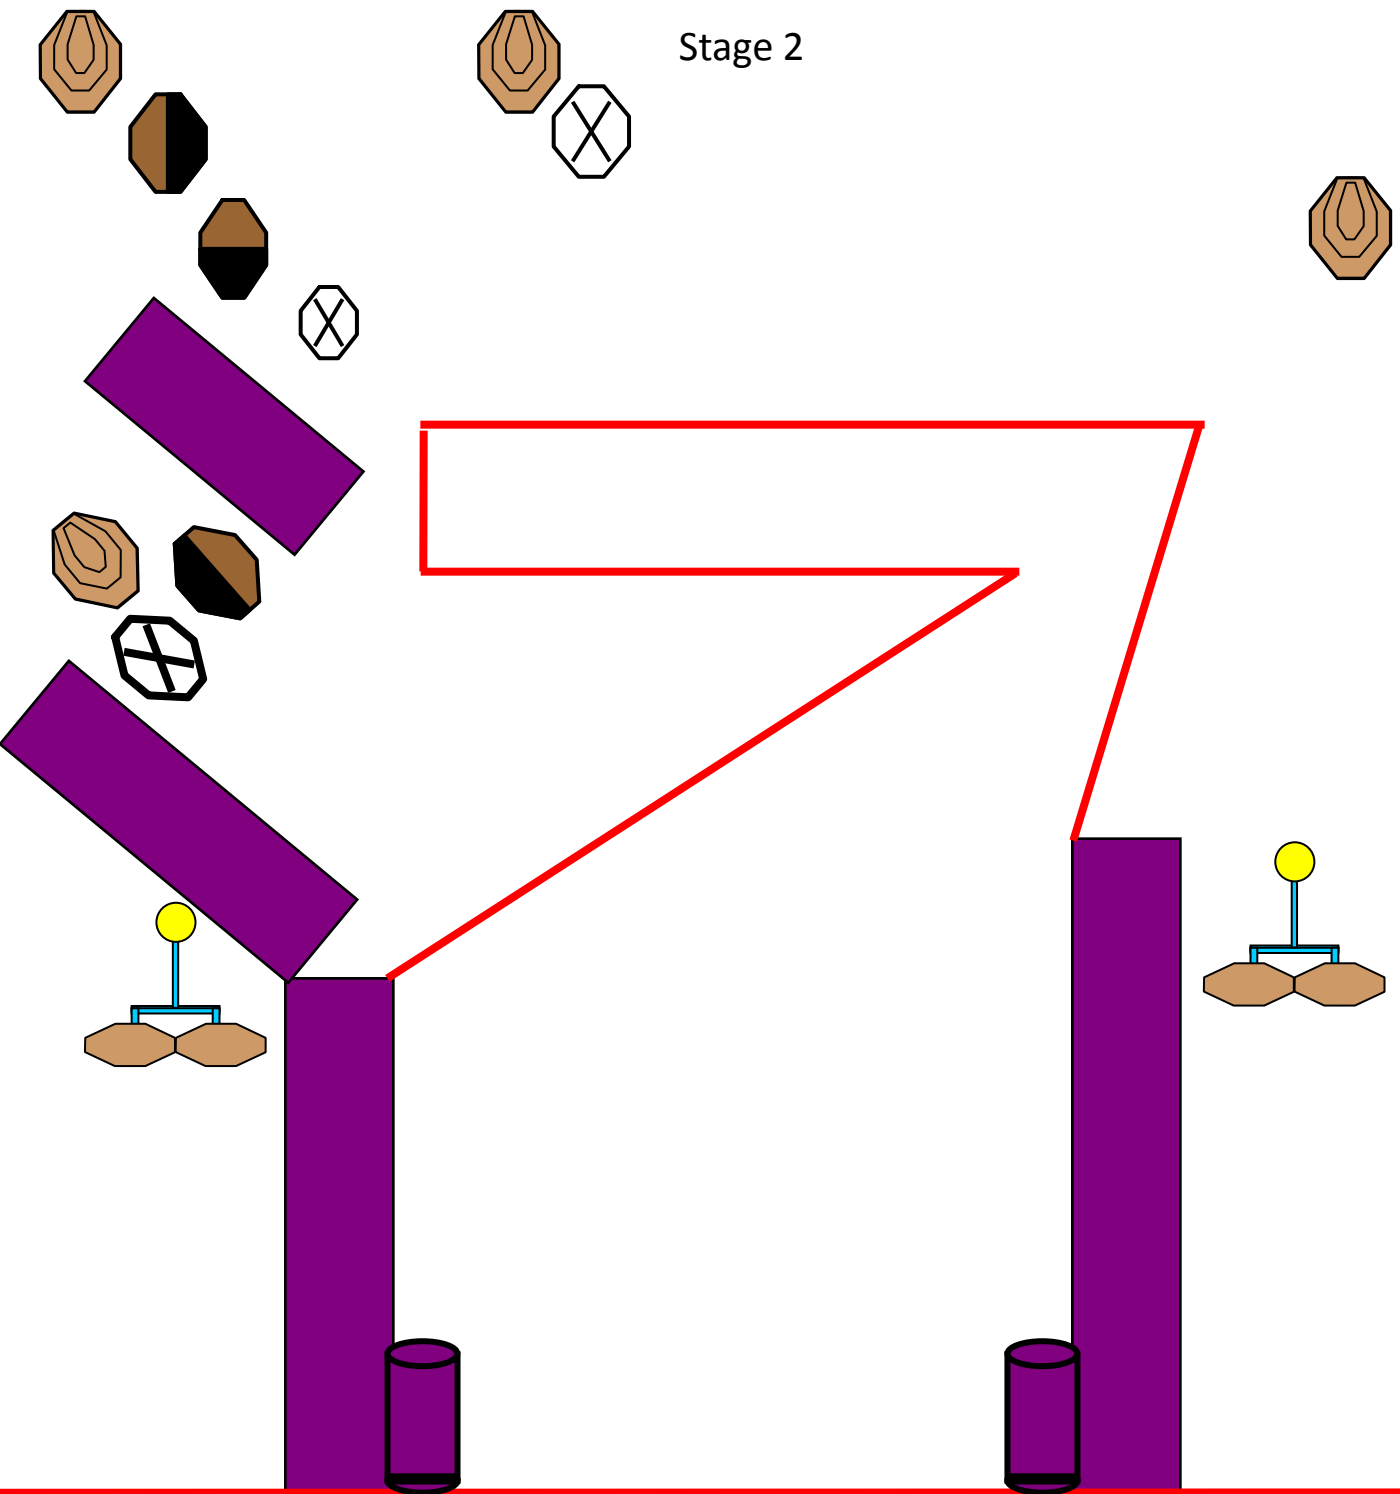

Startposition: as shown by RO, standing at A.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 2

Stage 2 is a medium course with minimum 24 rounds, max. points: 120.

Targets are: 11 IPSC targets (3 partials), 2 plates, some penalty targets.

Gun condition: gun empty on barrel, all magazines on other barrel.

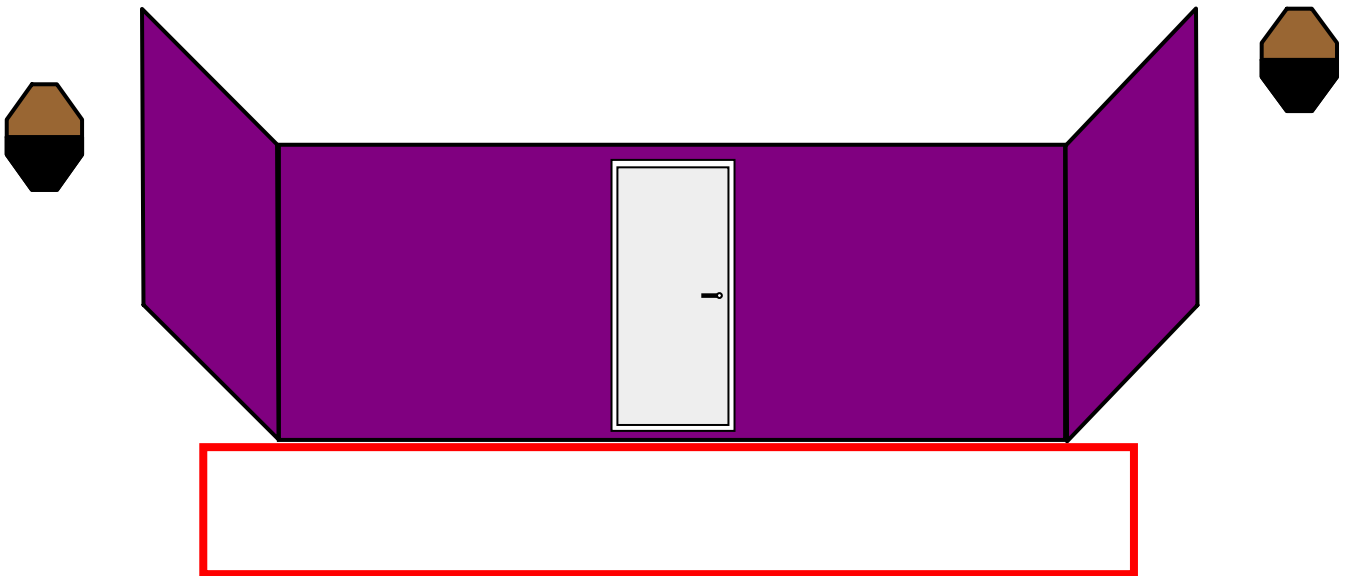

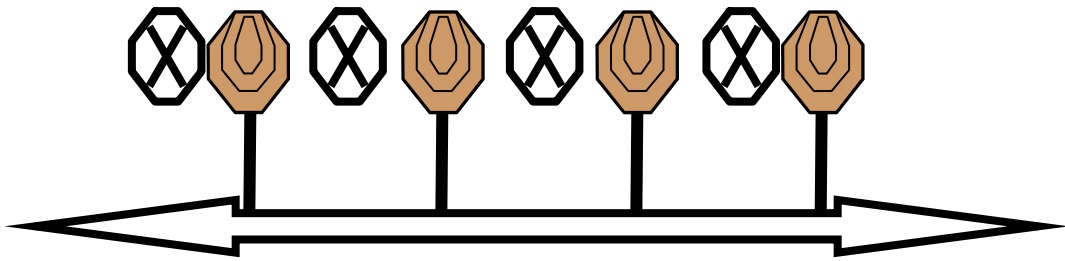

Startposition: as shown by RO, standing anywhere behind fault line.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines, each plates pops up 2 targets.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 3

Stage 3 is a short course with minimum 12 rounds, max. points: 60.

Targets: 6 IPSC targets (2 partials), some penalty targets.

Gun condition: loaded and holstered.

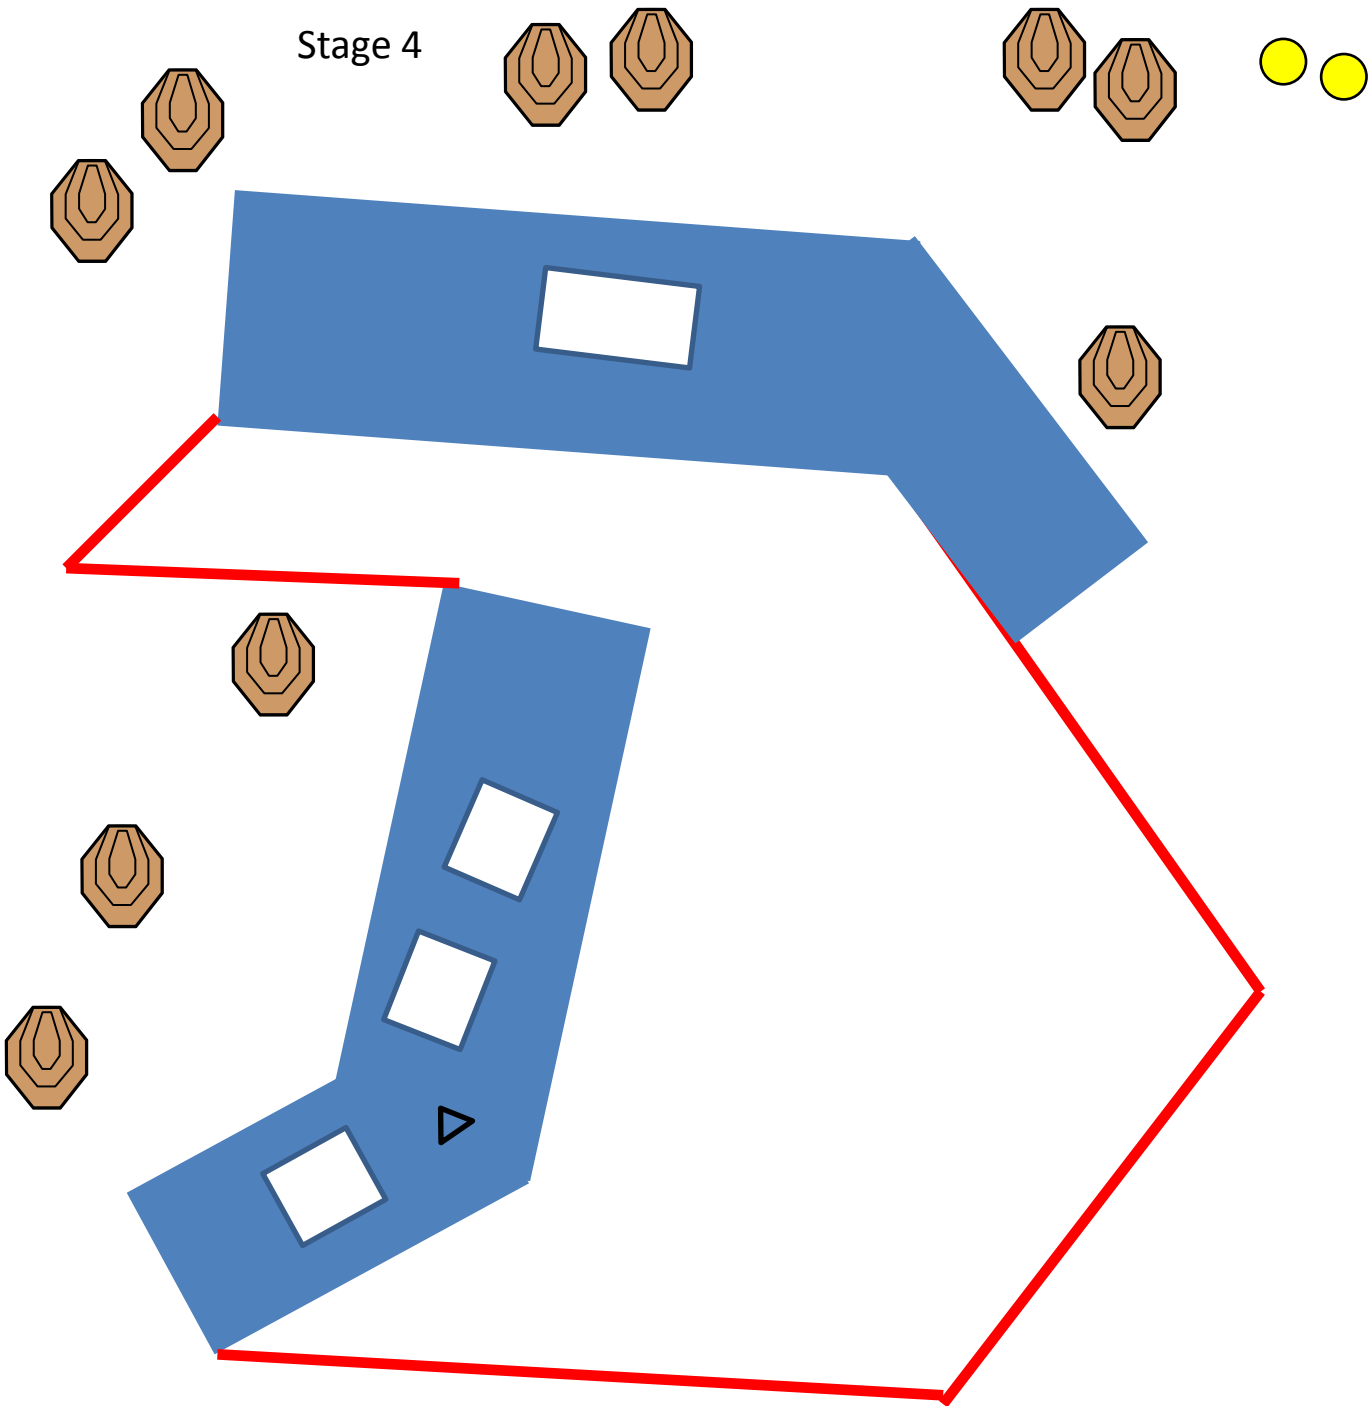

Startposition: as shown by RO, anywhere within fault lines.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines, by opening the door swingers are activated.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 4

Stage 4 is a medium course with minimum 22 rounds, max. points: 110.

Targets are : 10 IPSC Mini targets, 2 plates, 4 penalty targets.

Gun condition: loaded and holstered.

Startposition: as shown by RO, strong hand holding a handle.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 5

Stage 5 is a short course with minimum 9 rounds, maximum points 45.

Targets: 3 IPSC Mini targets and 3 plates.

Startposition: as shown by RO, standing anywhere within fault lines.

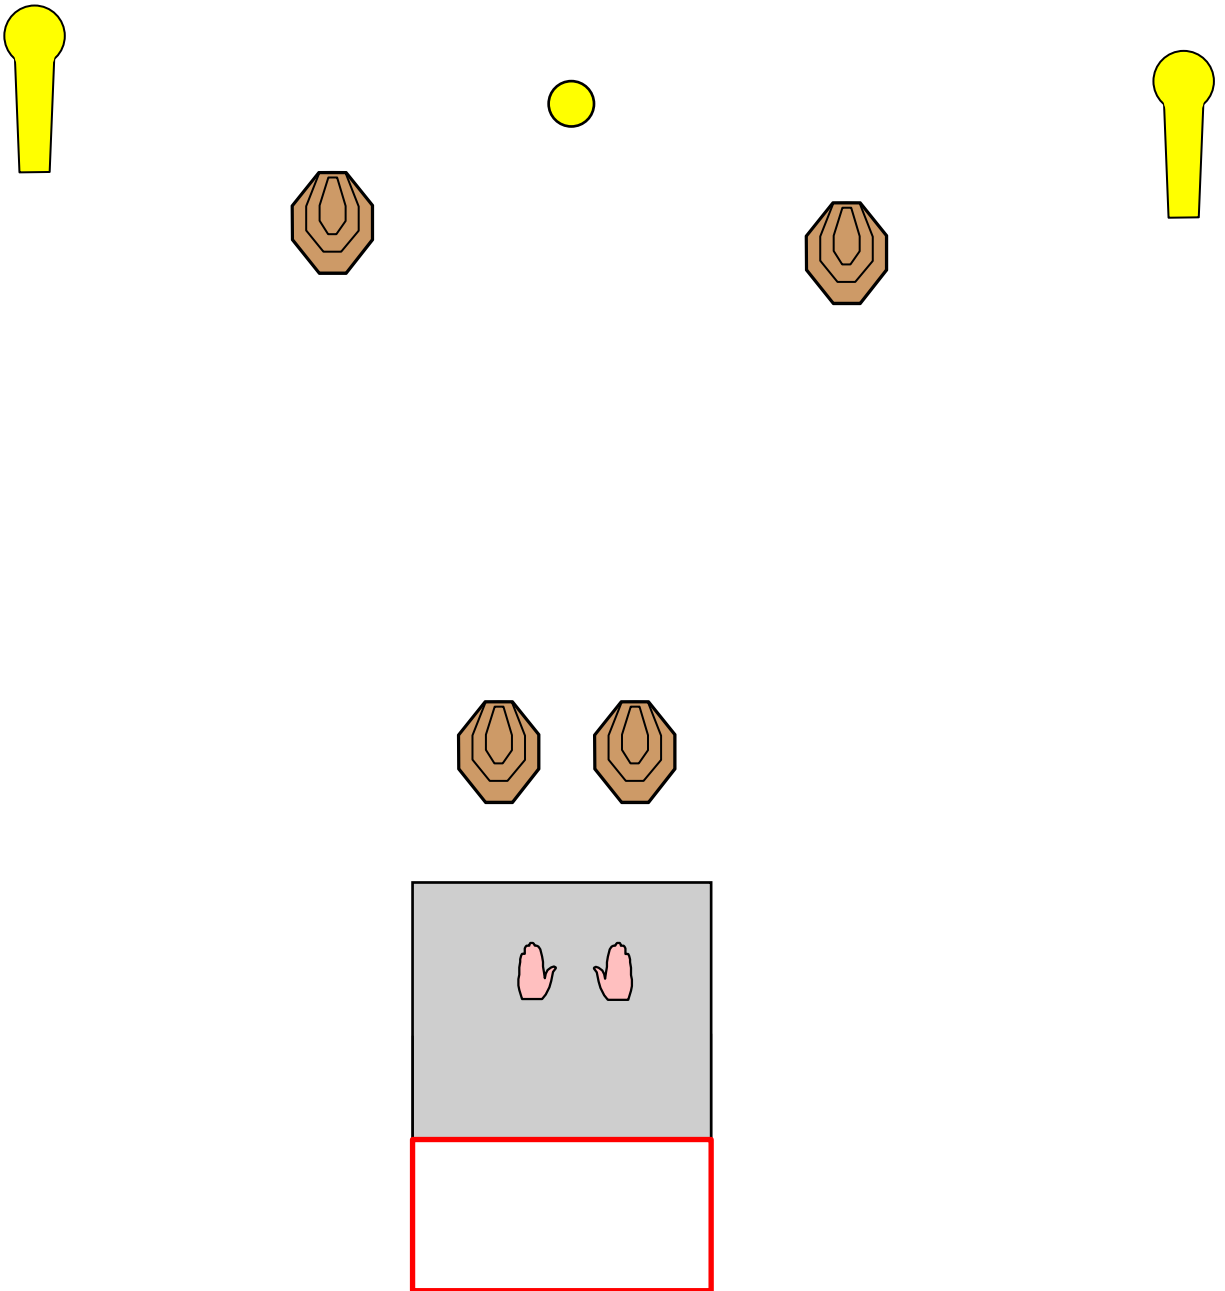

Gun condition: loaded and holstered.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 6

Stage 6 is a short course with minimum 11 rounds. Max. points: 55

Targets are: 4 IPSC targets, 2 poppers, 1 plate.

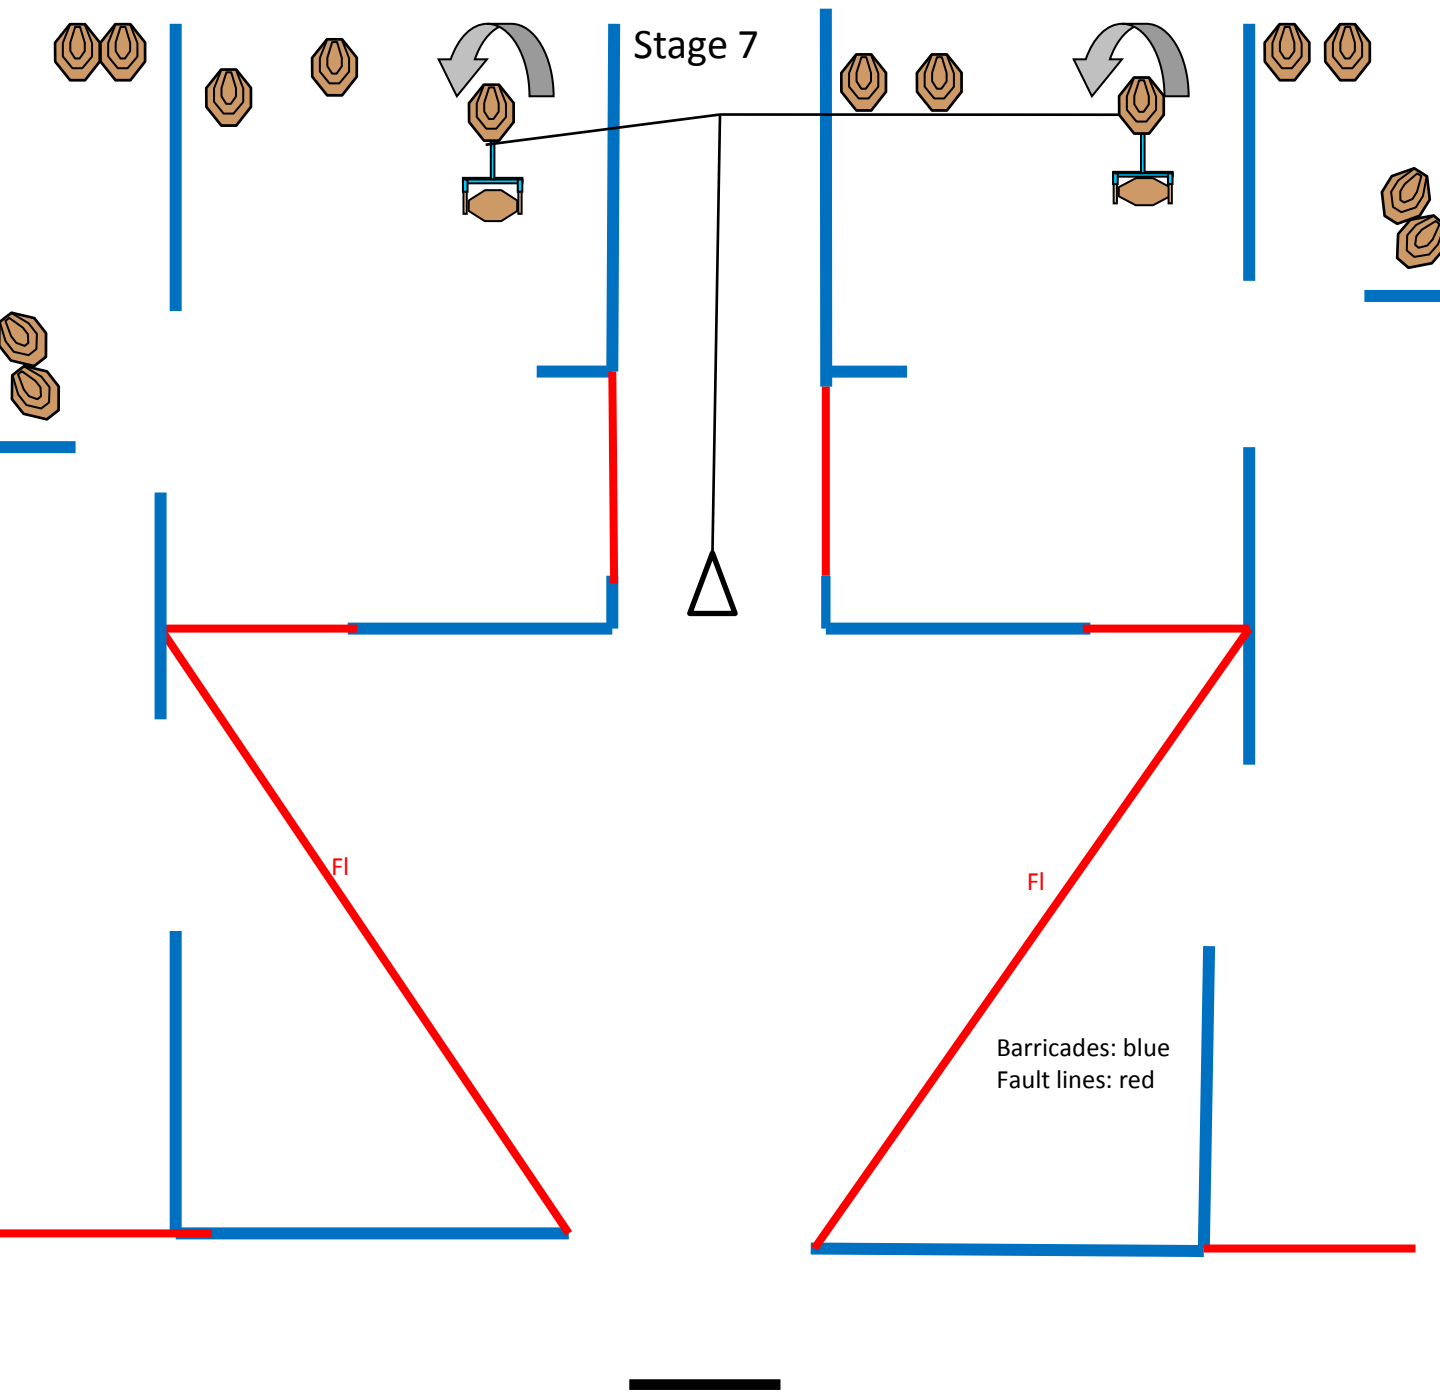

Gun condition: loaded, but chamber empty, in holster.

Startposition: as shown by RO, hands on marks.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 7 is a long course with minimum 32 rounds, max. points 160.

Targets are 16 IPSC targets.

Gun condition: loaded and holstered.

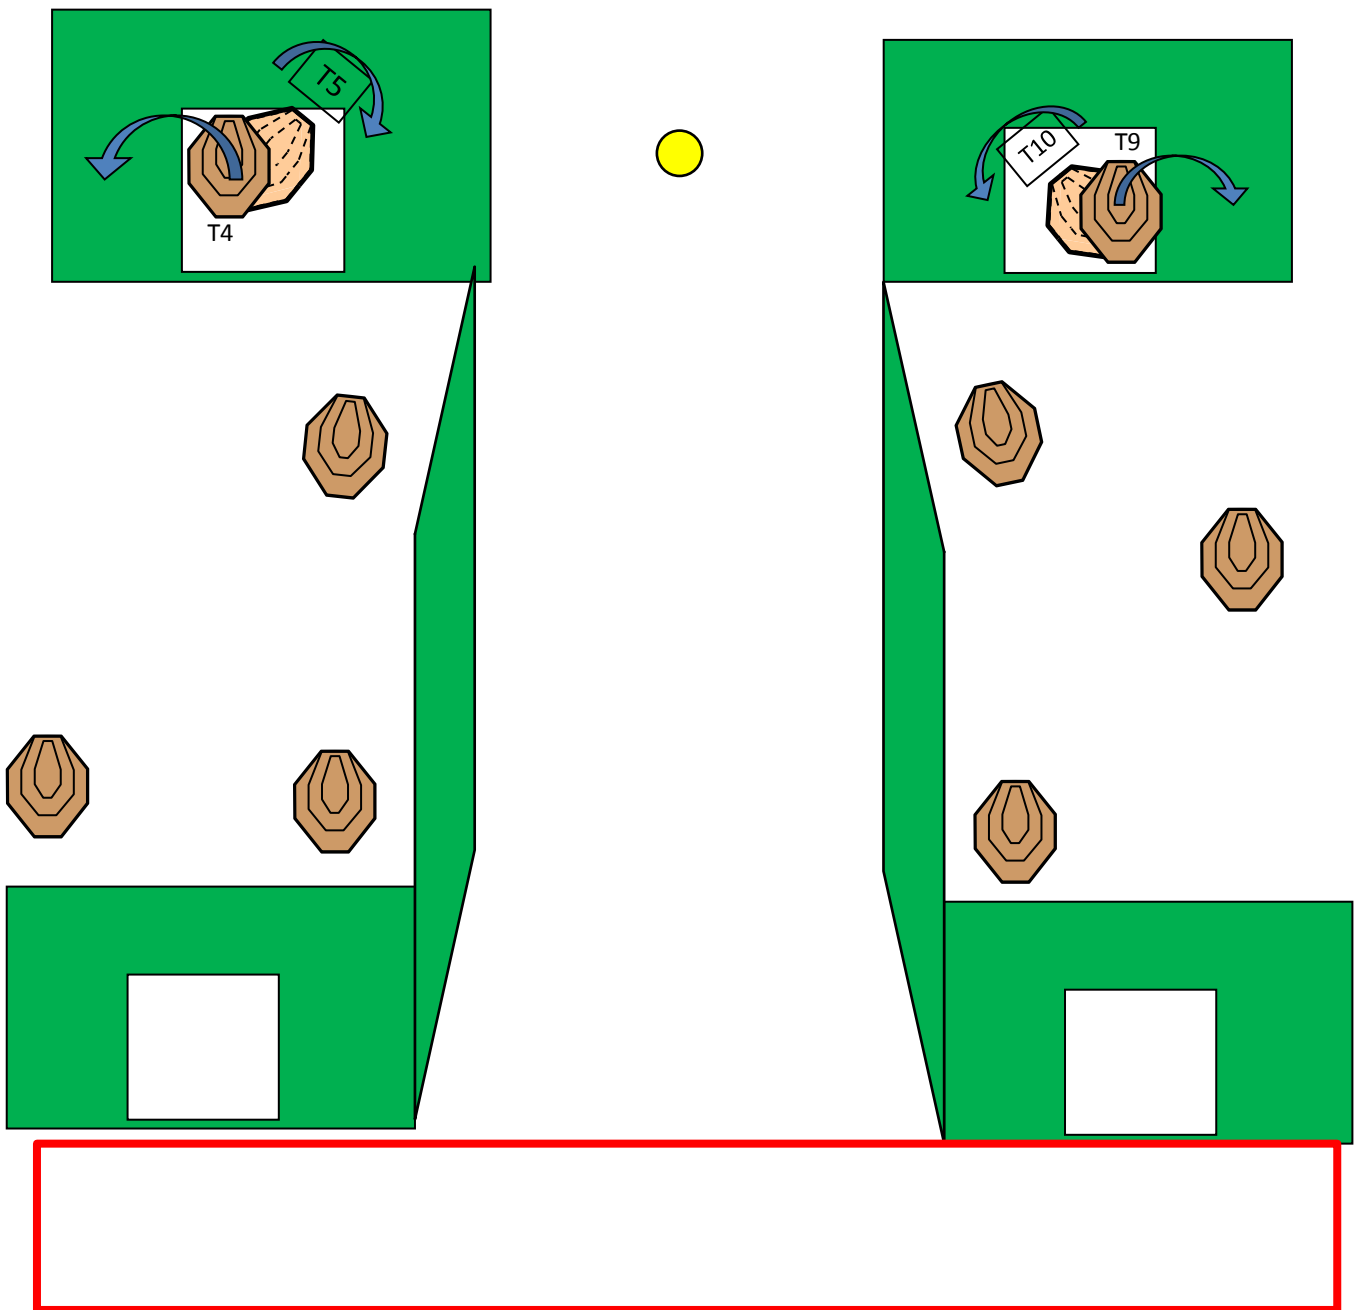

Startposition: as shown by RO, heels on marks.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines. Pulling the rope makes 2 targets visible, 2 will disappear.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 8

Stage 8 is a medium course with minimum 21 rounds, max. points 105.

Targets are 10 IPSC targets and 1 plate.

Gun condition: loaded and holstered.

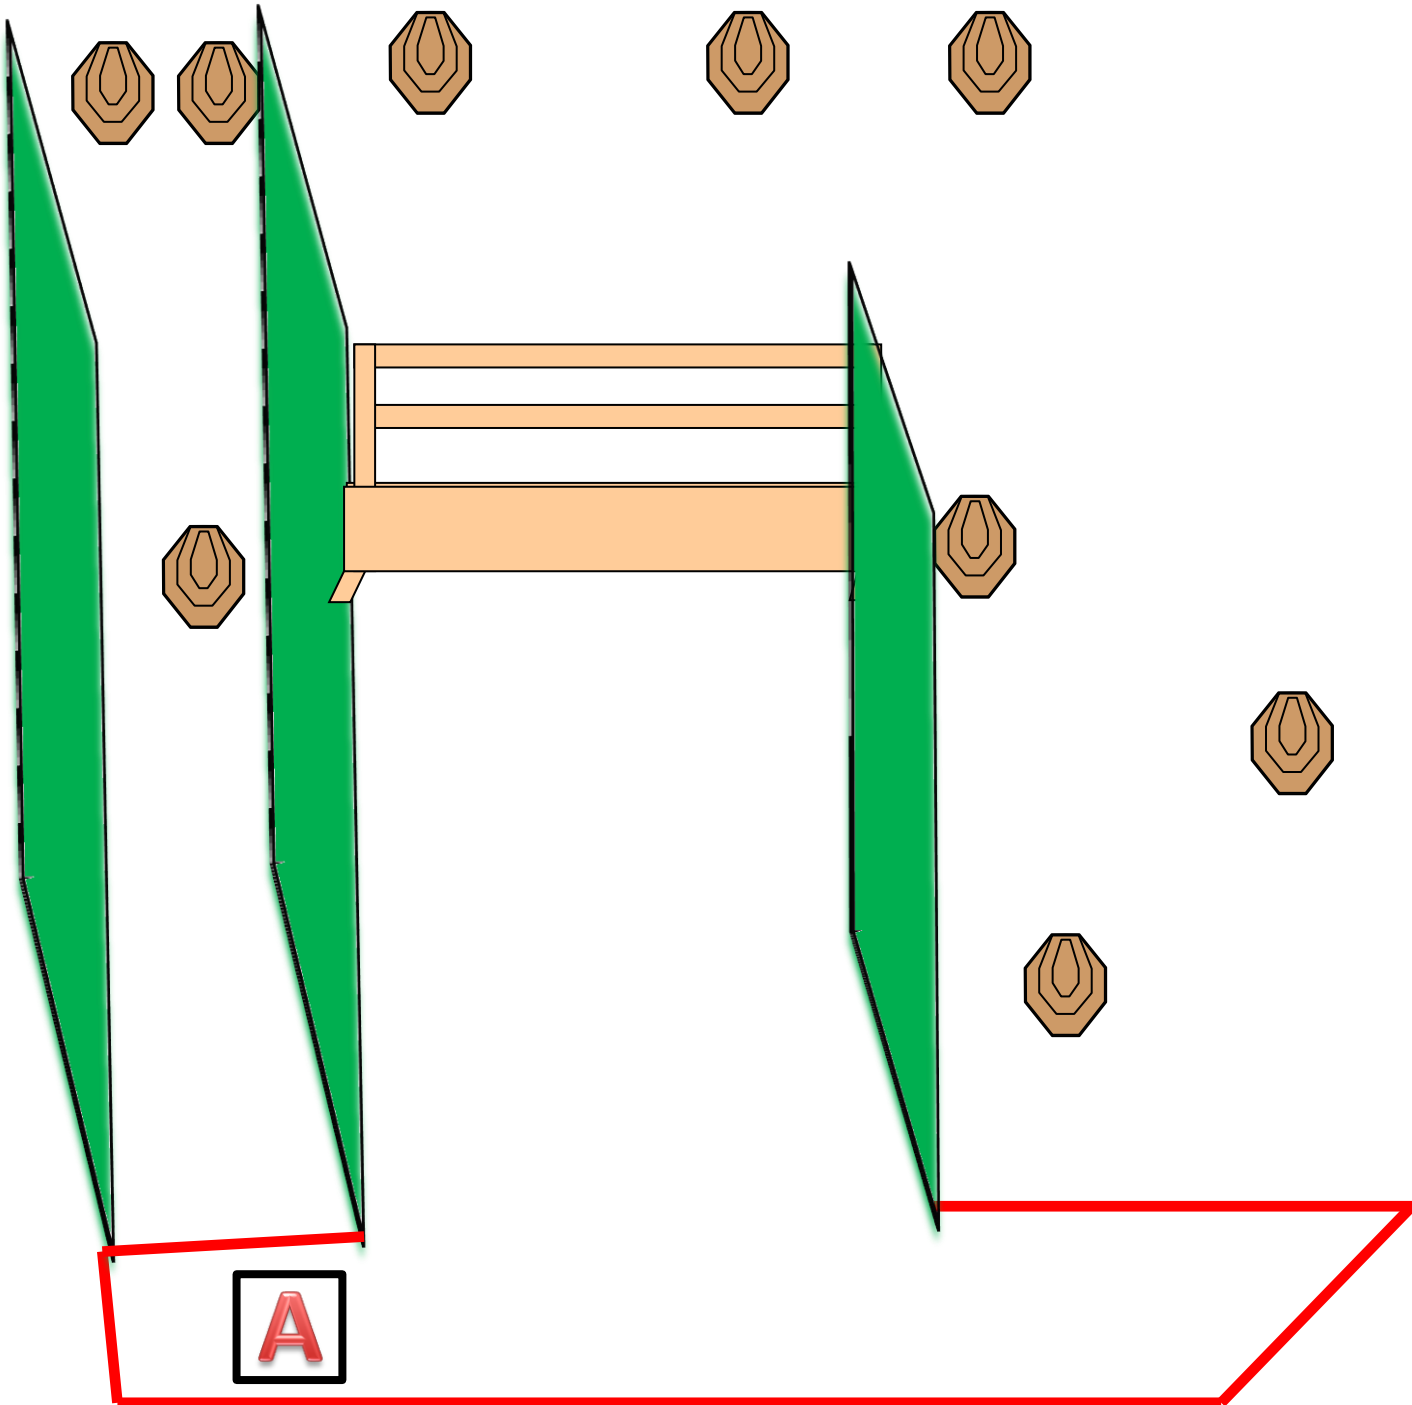

Startposition: as shown by RO, heels on mark.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines. Shooting the plate will hide T4 and T9 and makes T5 and T10 visible.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 9

Stage 9 is a medium course with minimum 18 rounds, max.points: 90.

Targets are 9 IPSC targets.

Gun condition: loaded and holstered.

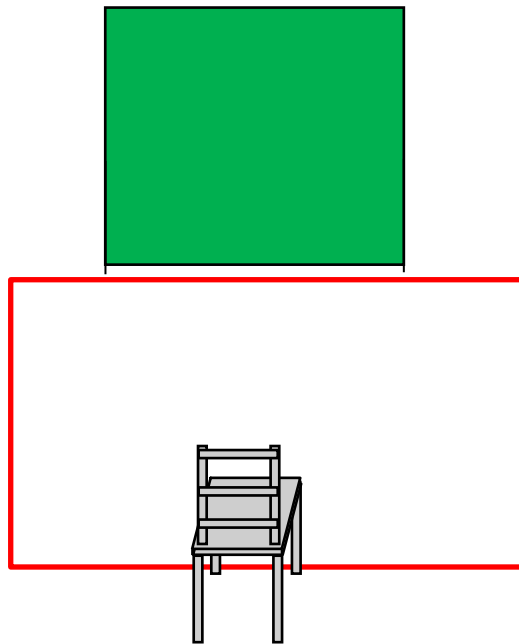

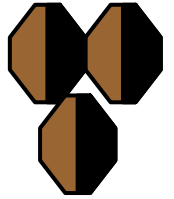

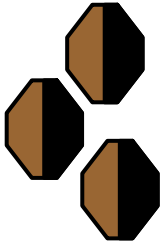

Startposition: as shown by RO, standing at A.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 10

Stage 10 is a short course with minimum 12 rounds. Maximum points: 60

Targets: 6 IPSC targets, some of them partials.

Gun condition: empty in holster.

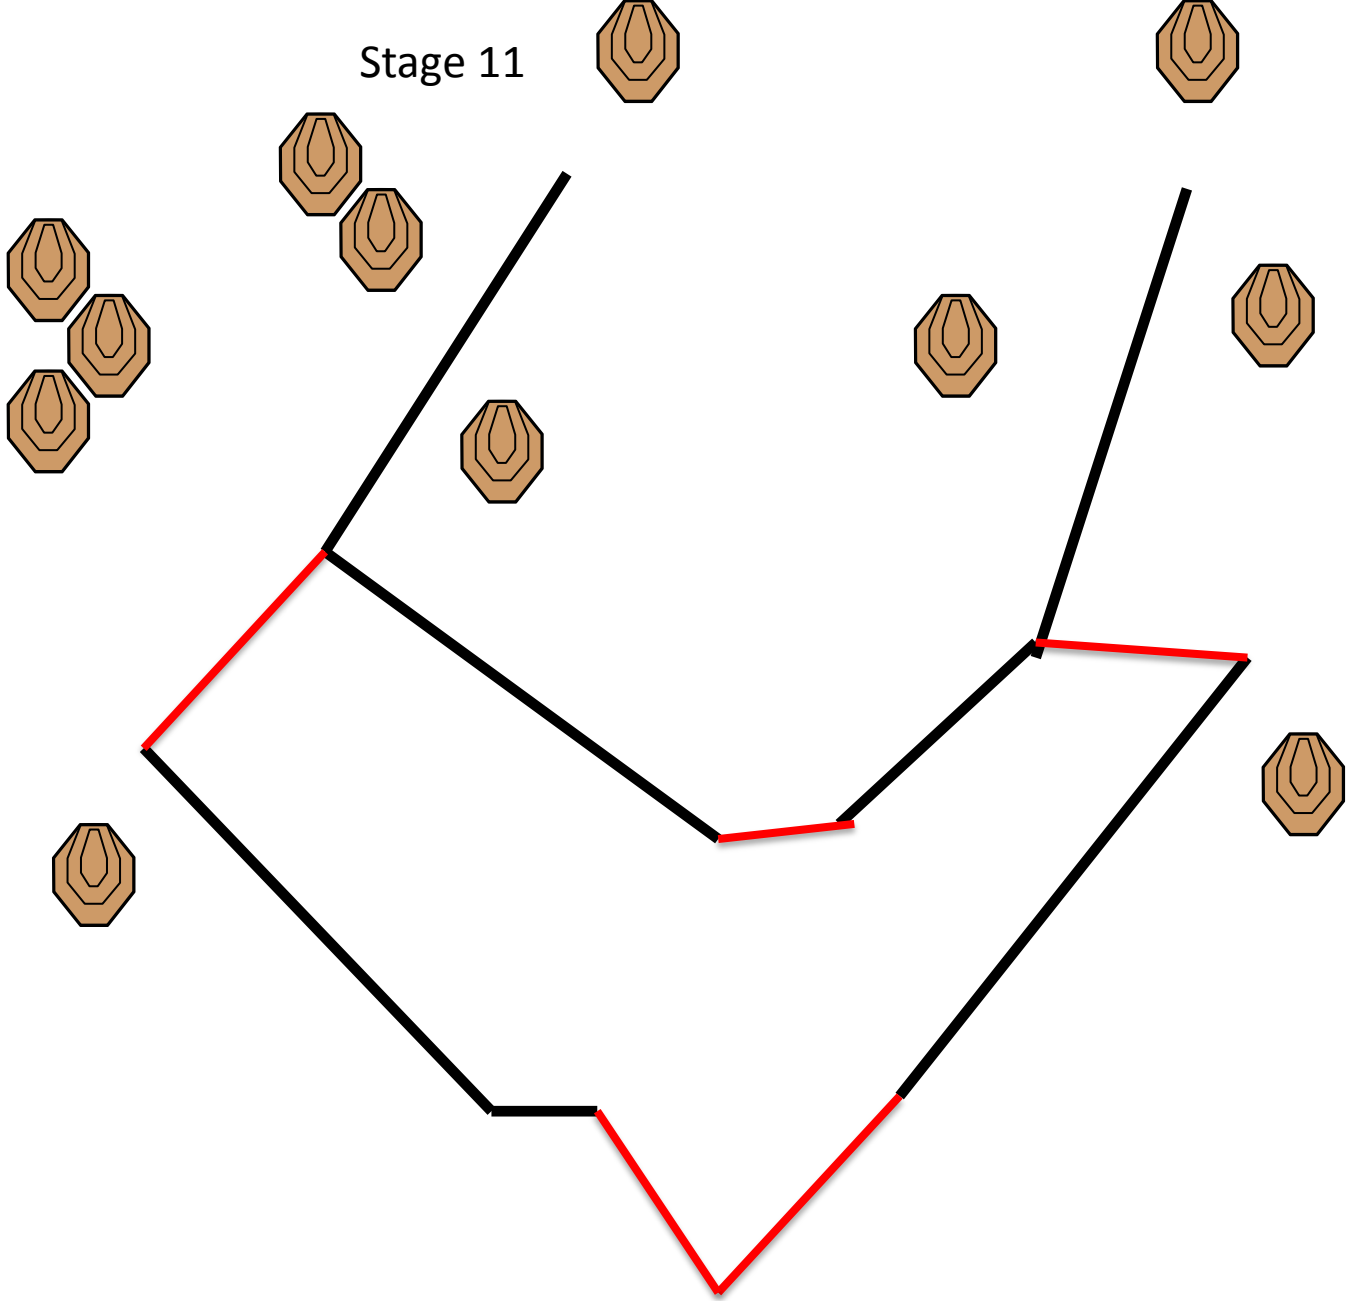

Startposition: as shown by RO, sitting in chair, hands on ear protection.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines with strong hand only.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.

Stage 11

Stage 11 is a short course with minimum 12 rounds. Max. points: 60

Targets: 12 IPSC mini targets, some penalty targets

Gun condition: loaded in holster

Startposition: standing anywhere inside fault lines.

Time starts on audible signal.

Procedure: engage targets from within fault lines.

Rules according to latest rulebook. Safety angles are reduced by the height of the backstop.